

Data Protection Statement

The legal framework for data protection may be found in the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). The provisions below serve to provide information as to the manner, extent and purpose for collecting, using and processing personal information by the provider.

Johnson Language Services UG (haftungsbeschränkt), Karlstr. 15, 77694 Kehl, Germany

Tel: 07851 636 6710 E-Mail: info@chatbella.com

Our website may be used without entering personal information. Different rules may apply to certain services on our site, however, and are explained separately below. We collect personal information from you (e.g. name, address, email address, telephone number, etc.) in accordance with the provisions of German data protection statutes. Information is considered personal if it can be associated exclusively to a specific natural person.

Please be aware that data transfer via the internet is subject to security risks and, therefore, complete protection against third-party access to transferred data cannot be ensured. We do, however, use SSL encryption in order to best protect your data.

Information/Cancellation/Deletion

On the basis of the GDPR, you may contact us at no cost if you have questions relating to the collection, processing or use of your personal information, if you wish to request the correction, blocking or deletion of the same, or if you wish to cancel explicitly granted consent. Please note that you have the right to have incorrect data corrected or to have personal data deleted, where such claim is not barred by any legal obligation to retain this data.

Cookies

Our website makes use of so-called cookies in order to recognize repeat use of our website by the same user/internet connection subscriber. Cookies are small text files that your internet browser downloads and stores on your computer. They are used to improve our website and services. In most cases these are so-called "session cookies" that are deleted once you leave our website.

To an extent, however, these cookies also pass along information used to automatically recognize you. Recognition occurs through an IP address saved to the cookies. The information thereby obtained is used to improve our services and to expedite your access to the website.

You can prevent cookies from being installed by adjusting the settings on your browser software accordingly. You should be aware, however, that by doing so you may not be able to make full use of all the functions of our website.

Contacting Us

On our website we offer you the opportunity to contact us, either by email and/or by using a contact form. In such event, information provided by the user is stored for the purpose of facilitating communications with the user. No data is transferred to third parties. Nor is any of this information matched to any information that may be collected by other components of our website.

Newsletter

Our website offers you the opportunity to subscribe to our newsletter. The newsletter provides you periodically with information about our services. To receive our newsletter, we require a valid email address.

We use the Double-Opt-In method, i.e. we will send you a newsletter by e-mail only if you have previously expressly confirmed that we should activate the newsletter service. In order to receive the newsletter, you must enter your e-mail into the field provided for this purpose. We will then send you a notification e-mail and ask you to confirm that you would like to receive our newsletter (Double-Opt-In) by clicking on a link contained in this e-mail.

We use the mailing list provider mailjet to send our newsletter. Mailjet is a service provided by Mailjet GmbH, Friedrichstraße 68, 10117 Berlin, Germany. When you register for our newsletter, the e-mail address you provide during the registration process will be sent to mailjet and stored there. Any analysis of newsletter data is group-specific and not used by us for individual evaluation. Further information on mailjet and the data protection at mailjet can be found here:

<https://www.mailjet.de/privacy-policy/>

You can unsubscribe from this newsletter at any time. You can find more details about this in the confirmation mail as well as in each individual newsletter.

Use of Facebook components

Our website employs components provided by facebook.com. Facebook is a service of Facebook Inc., 1601 S. California Ave, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA.

Each time our website receives an access request equipped with a Facebook component, the component prompts your browser to download an image of this Facebook component. Through this process, Facebook is informed precisely which page of our website is being visited.

When you access our site while logged into Facebook, Facebook uses information gathered by this component to identify the precise page you are viewing and associates this information to your personal account on Facebook. Whenever you click on the “Like” button, for example, or enter a comment, this information is transmitted to your personal account on Facebook and stored there. In addition, Facebook is informed of your visit to our website. This occurs regardless of whether you click on a component or not.

If you wish to prevent the transfer to and storage of data by Facebook about you and your interaction with our website, you must first log out of Facebook before visiting our website. The data protection policies of Facebook provide additional information, in particular about the collection and use of data by Facebook, your rights in this regard as well as the options available to you for protecting your privacy: <https://de-de.facebook.com/about/privacy/>

In addition, tools are freely available on the market that can be used to block Facebook social plugins with add-ons from being added to all commonly used browsers:
